

*Your pale skin drives me mad
Stone-cold are pain-burning lips
You are my freedom, my despair
Oblivion and trance*

*Your body is perfect
But its your mind, what I desire
I would die for a thought
But you know no emotion*

*You are the storm in the night,
You are the whisper in the wind
The essence of Angels' Fall,
The dark core of Love*

*I don't know your name
But I call you in my dreams
Knowing my love is forbidden
Taken out of this world*

*So I do cry in silence
Come and take me
But if you'd do this
My dream would be over*
